

PRIVACY POLICY

01.01.2021

Your privacy is important to us. At AFRICKICKS we share the following principles:

- We are considerate about the personal information we ask you to provide and the personal information that we collect about you through our services.
- We store personal information for as long as we have a reason to.
- We aim to make it as easy for you to control what information is shared publicly (or kept private), indexed by search engines, and permanently deleted.
- We help protect you from overreaching government demands for your personal information.
- We aim for full transparency on how we gather, use, and share your personal information.

Below is our Privacy Policy, which incorporates and clarifies these principles.

WHEN WILL AFRICKICKS CONTACT YOU?

When you give AFRICKICKS your personal details you may receive follow up information relevant to this activity.

We may contact you about our projects, fundraising activities, and other ways to support us.

We provide easy ways to stop our marketing, and you can opt out at any time via afrikicksmission@gmail.com

AFRICKICKS WILL NOT SHARE YOUR DATA

We may need to share limited information with service providers who help with our communications and process donations. We do not allow these organisations to use your data for their own purposes.

Please be assured that you will not receive offers from other companies or organisations as a result of giving your details to AFRICKICKS.

CHANGE OR STOP COMMUNICATIONS

We ask for the minimal amount of information such as your name and email so we know how to contact you.

Please contact afrikicksmission@gmail.com if you no longer wish to receive communications from us. We'll be sorry to see you go.

It's possible to opt out of our emails by clicking on the unsubscribe link.

COOKIES

Cookies are small text files on technical devices created by web browsers when we visit a website. Every time we go back to that website, our browser will send the cookie file back to the website's server. This improves user experience by remembering preference settings and usage. Cookies can be used to show relevant content on social media services known as 'retargeting' or 'advertising' cookies.
